

Ellington Financial Inc. Announces the Income Tax Treatment of 2019 Distributions on its Series A Preferred Stock

January 30, 2020

OLD GREENWICH, Conn.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 30, 2020-- Ellington Financial Inc. (NYSE: EFC) (the "Company") today announced the federal income tax treatment of the distributions on the Company's 6.750% Series A Fixed-to-Floating Rate Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the "preferred shares") deemed paid in 2019. This information is being provided to assist shareholders with tax reporting requirements related to distributions on preferred shares by the Company.

Shareholders should review their Forms 1099 as well as other 2019 tax statements that they will receive from their brokerage firms or other institutions to ensure that the statements agree with the information provided below. Additionally, preferred shareholders are encouraged to consult with their own professional tax advisors with respect to their individual tax consequences.

According to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("the Code"), if a Real Estate Investment Trust ("REIT") declares dividends in the last three months of a calendar year, with a record date in that calendar year, but which are payable in the first month of the following year, such dividends are considered paid for the recipient's tax and Form 1099 reporting purposes on December 31 and not on the payable date, to the extent the REIT has any remaining undistributed earnings and profits (as computed for federal income tax purposes) as of the last day of that calendar year. EFC declared a preferred dividend in December 2019 ("the fourth quarter dividend") that is payable in January 2020. Since EFC had earnings and profits (as computed for income tax purposes and allocated to preferred shareholders) as of the last day of 2019, the fourth quarter dividend is considered to have been paid and taxable to preferred shareholders in 2019.

On December 13, 2019, the Company declared a cash distribution of $0.45938 per share on its preferred stock. The distribution is payable on January 30, 2020, and will be reportable to our preferred shareholders as 2019 dividend income. For federal income tax purposes, of the total distribution of $0.45938 per share, $0.43004 will be treated as Qualified REIT Dividends under Section 199A, $0.00083 will be treated as Qualified Dividends, and $0.02851 will be treated as Capital Gain Distributions. The Federal income tax classification of this distribution, as it is expected to be reported on Form 1099-DIV, is set forth in the following table:

Declaration Date	Record Date	Payable Date	Total Distribution Per Share	Box 1a Total Ordinary Dividends	Box 1b Qualified Dividends (Included in Box 1a)	Box 5 Box 2a Total 199A Capital Gain Dividends Distribution (Included in Box 1a)
12/13/2019	12/31/2019	01/30/2020	$0.45938	$0.43087	$0.00083	$0.02851
						$0.43004

No portion of this distribution is expected to consist of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI), which is subject to special tax reporting for certain tax exempt investors, or is expected to consist of excess inclusion income.
